

AMPAC Leadership Cup Participation Competition

States and AMA Councils are invited to compete for the prestigious AMPAC Leadership Cup!

STATE HOD COMPETITION

- The State HOD competition is structured with four (4) groups based on the number of delegates/alternate delegates for each state, categorized as: Big, Large, Medium, and Small.
- Four (4) trophies will be awarded – one to the state in each group that achieves 100% AMPAC HOD participation, with additional criteria applied as needed to determine a single winner per group.
- Each trophy will be engraved annually with the winning state to be displayed at their Delegation meeting during the AMA's Interim Meeting.

Criteria:

The winner in each group will be determined using the criteria below. The HOD delegation includes physician/resident/student delegates and alternate delegates.

If more than one state has 100% AMPAC participation, the winning state will be determined using the following criteria in order:

- 1) A minimum of 50% participation at the Capitol Club level
- 2) Highest per-capita dollar amount
- 3) Most Capitol Club Diamond members

AMA COUNCIL COMPETITION

- The seven AMA Councils will engage in a participation competition with each other.
- One trophy will be awarded to the AMA Council that achieves 100% AMPAC HOD participation, with additional criteria applied as needed to determine a single winner.
- The trophy will be engraved annually with the winning Council to be displayed at their Council meeting at the AMA's Interim Meeting.

Criteria:

The AMA Council winner will be determined using the criteria below.

If more than one Council has 100% AMPAC Participation, the winning Council will be determined using the following criteria in order:

- 1) A minimum of 50% participation at the Capitol Club level
- 2) Highest per-capita dollar amount
- 3) Most Capitol Club Diamond members

Competition Deadline: September 15

All contributions must be received by AMPAC staff in the Washington, DC office by September 15.

Winners will be notified by October 1.
